Glendower Golf Club – The Classic Golf Experience

Proud host to eight South African Open Championships

Glendower Golf Club is an exquisitely designed, highly ranked parkland golf course in Johannesburg, South Africa. A challenging golf course set amidst gorgeous surroundings, Glendower Golf Club is said to be a test for the world's best golfers and a truly memorable experience for all amateurs.

"I could see this as a real potential venue for a U.S. Open if it was in America. It's so reminiscent of the great courses in the United States, it would fit in very well," - Paul McGinley, Ryder Cup Captain after playing in the 2013 SA Open Championship
